This is the production of a true poet:

[For the Louisville Bulletin.]
TO LULA.

In the coming Eden year
Joy shall bloom from many a tear
That is sown in sadness here;
God shall be the gardener,
In the coming Eden year.

Yes, when you and I are dead,
In that Eden we shall wed
Forms of beauty that have played
In our dreamland, and then fled—
Yes, when you and I are dead.

Then my Lula shall be mine,
Then two souls as one shall shine,
Rounded, starlike, crystalline;
Then we'll quaff love's newest wine,
Pressed from vintage divine.

Then with us shall life begin,
Nightless, tearless, and serene;
We shall see as we are seen,
Every thought of diamond sheen—
Only then shall life begin.

Endless ages round shall run,
Spirit systems circling sun;
Glorious, radiant, central sun;
Bills shall never reach its noon
Till the life of God is done.

If we know that land is ours,
What though storms shall bend the flowers?
They shall bloom in sunnier bowers,
All the sweeter for life's showers,
If we know that land is ours.

Safe beyond Acheron's brim,
On God's mountains we will climb—
Singing o'er the tombs of time,
To the list'ning stars our chime—
Love alone makes life sublime.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

PORTLAND TELEGRAPH LINE.

Office at Portland, Delme's Drug Store, on the wharf.
Office at Shippingport, in the Canal Office.

Office at Louisville, Durrett's Clothing Store, corner Fourth and Water streets.

The river was at about the same stage last evening as on the preceding evening—6 feet 1 inch water on the falls and 8 feet 10 inches in the canal. It will doubtless commence rising to-day, as the Cincinnati papers report it rising there on Tuesday at the rate of half an inch per hour. From Capt. Saunders, of the Dove, we learn that the Kentucky river was falling, but the Emma Dean reports it rising, as well as the Ohio river at Madison.

The Evansville Journal of Tuesday reports the river rising there rapidly, and that it had overflowed the bottoms above that point. The rise must be from Green river.

The Mississippi and all its tributaries above St. Louis were falling.

The Nashville Banner of Tuesday reports 4 feet water on the shoals in the Cumberland, and the river falling slowly.

Mr. Booth, of the Portland and Shippingport telegraph line, keeps a register of the steamboat arrivals and departures.

Storeboats Sunk.—We learn from Mr. Upson, of the R. M. Patton, that four storeboats lying at or near Newburgh, Indiana, were sunk by a storm on Tuesday. They were laden with flour, potatoes, and other produce. The Patton picked up a few barrels of flour that were floating in the river.

Steamer Nettle Miller Sunk.—We learn from the Nashville Banner that this steamer was sunk a few days ago in the Upper Cumberland, just above Burksville. Her bow was lying in six and her stern in four feet water. The accident occurred as she was leaving port. A strong wind swung her stern ashore, and a snag tore a large opening in her hull. She had very little freight, and it escaped a wetting. It is thought she can be raised easily. She was commanded by Capt. Tindall.

The St. Louis News has the following paragraph. The News makes no other allusion to it:

Alarm of Fire.—We learn that the alarm of fire about 8 o'clock last night was caused by the burning of a steamboat at Cahokia Bend, about five miles below this city. It made a great light, and appeared to be in the lower part of our city. Many of our fire companies started down, but returned after getting nearly as far as the city limits.

An attempt was made at Cincinnati to blow up the steamer Yorktown, which was sunk during the breaking of the ice and subsequently raised. On Tuesday, while the mud was being cleaned out of her boilers, one of the men found a tin canister containing ten pounds of powder, embedded in the mud in one of the flues. As there was no use for powder about the boat, it is supposed some rascal placed it there with the intention of blowing up the boat when a fire was built under the boilers.

The Ben Franklin and Nebraska coming.—A dispatch to Capt. Basham, from Memphis, states that the Ben Franklin, from New Orleans, had passed there and will arrive on Friday evening. Another dispatch states that the Nebraska has also passed there and will arrive on Saturday. These boats are of the Memphis and New Orleans line, and as nearly all the cotton has been shipped, they are coming here for freight. We are sorry to say that there is but little freight here, and rates are low.

The splendid regular packet Northerner is due from Memphis to-day, and she will return to that port to-morrow.

The fine Tennessee river packet R. M. Patton arrived last evening with a good load. She will return to that port on Saturday evening. Mr. Upson has our thanks for a copy of the manifest.

We thank Mr. Vinyard, the attentive clerk of the Emma Dean, for a copy of the manifest. The Dean leaves for Carrollton punctually at 10 o'clock to-day.

The D. A. Given arrived from Nashville last evening. We understand she has 1,000 hogs for one of the distilleries above this point.

The Pete Whetstone, Capt. Greenlaw, is advertised to leave for New Orleans to-day. The Wm. Dixon, Capt. Baught, is the packet for the Tennessee river this evening. She is a good boat and well officered. The H. Bridges, Capt. Combs, leaves for the Tennessee river to-day. The Statesman commences making regular semi-weekly trips in the Henderson trade to-day. She has been painted and renovated and is in tip top condition. Capt. Sullivan is her commander. The Telegraph No. 3, Capt. Hildreth, is the mail boat for Cincinnati.

CURIOUS PUNISHMENT.—A man named Daily, for attempting to commit suicide in Hendricks county, Ind., has been sentenced to the penitentiary for three years and disfranchised for ten years.

ENDOWMENT OF CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY.—Elder D. P. Henderson and President Shannon are yet in New Orleans engaged in behalf of Christian University. They have organized a Christian Church in New Orleans, and have secured over $100,000 for Christian University from the citizens of the South-west and South.

THE NEW U. S. CENT.—The coinage of the new cent, at the mint in Philadelphia, is progressing rapidly, but the pieces will not be paid out until at least three millions of them are completed. This will probably be in three weeks' time.

HALF-AND-HALF.—The Selma (Ala.) Reporter mentions having seen in that town a boy, one half of whose face is black as ebony. Both of his parents are pure blacks. He was born and raised in that county.

Eight boys escaped from the St. Louis house of refuge Saturday night. They were headed by one flourishing a hatchet, and forced their way past the guard, who, not anticipating anything so desperate from boys, was not prepared for them.

Dr. Ezra Ferris, a Baptist preacher and member of the convention that framed the first constitution of Indiana, died at Lawrenceburg, Ind., on Sunday, aged 84 years.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Odd Fellows publish W. H. Thornbury as an impostor and swindler. The Nashville Banner also joins in the cry, Thornbury having swindled the editor out of a pair of shoes.

The silk store of J. H. Jouve, in Cincinnati, was robbed Tuesday morning of $1,000 worth of silks and embroidery.

The cabinet factory of Cutter & DeForest, in Buffalo, was burned Sunday morning. Loss $70,000.

The fruit and corn crops in Alabama and Mississippi have been entirely ruined by the frost. It will be necessary to replant the corn.

Letters for the following persons are remaining in the St. Louis post office:
W. F. Albert, Louisville; John McDaniel, Middleton; and Miss Mary J. Elbert, Lexington.

INTERESTING NEW YORK ITEMS.—The following items are from a New York letter of April 20:

The legislature finally adjourned on Saturday, at 10 o'clock. Previous to adjournment the Dred Scott resolutions were passed, after being modified so as to imply that the confidence of the people in the Supreme Court has been impeached, but not lost. The usual ceremonies and courtesies were attended upon the breaking up of the session.

The steamer Vanderbilt had a most successful trial trip on Saturday. Her speed answered the expectations of the most sanguine, as she ran from the Southwest Spit to Castle Garden, a distance of seventeen miles, in fifty-five minutes.

The slavery question was under discussion in the M. E. Church Conference now in session in Brooklyn, on Saturday last. A committee presented two reports—the majority against having anything to do with the question of slavery, and the minority in favor of denouncing the evil everywhere at every opportunity.

An altercation took place yesterday afternoon, between John Peters, a German pedlar, and Frederick Francis, a colored man, which resulted in the death of the former. Peters, it appears, had assaulted the wife of Francis, who is a white woman, and to protect her Francis attacked Peters, knocked him down and killed him. Francis then gave himself up.

The examination of Scatchard, who recently attempted to raise the wind by forging a pardon for Huntington, has resulted so far in nothing but evidence going to prove Scatchard a swindler and associate of swindlers in various parts of the country—particularly in New Orleans and Natchez.

ARREST OF COUNTERFEITERS.—The Cincinnati Gazette reports the following:

At Covington, on Monday, an old man named Barr was detected in the act of attempting to pass spurious gold $2's and $5's. He was taken to jail, and on searching him there was found upon his person $500 in counterfeit bills on the Canal Bank of New Orleans, of the denominations of $20, $50, and $100. Marshal Butts obtained information respecting his confederates, which he communicated to Mr. Ruffin. About 4 o'clock an old man named T. Silver was arrested. He was arrested about four years ago in this city and taken on to Virginia to answer a charge of passing bad money there, and was sent to the penitentiary, which place he left at the expiration of his time, not long ago. On his person were found seventy one-dollar gold pieces, of the date of 1853. They were carefully wrapped in paper, so that no two of them could rub against each other. They are neatly executed, and well calculated to deceive, but they are not near so heavy as genuine coins. He had also one of the $20 counterfeit bills on the New Orleans Canal Bank, a good $20 gold piece, and $4 in good bills.

When he found himself about to be arrested, Silver drew a splendid self-loading pistol, which he evidently intended firing, but one of the officers caught his arm with sufficient quickness to prevent the act. In his bosom was found a large new bowie knife.

Between 6 and 7 in the evening, another of the gang, whose name is J. Miller, entered the same hotel and was arrested. Upon him was found a counterfeit half dollar, and a list of the names and residences of twelve or fifteen counterfeiters who deal in the "stuff." Most of them are located in Northern Ohio. Barr remains in jail at Covington, and the two others will be examined in the police court to-day.

ABDUCTION BY ROMAN CATHOLICS.—The Philadelphia Bulletin of Monday says:

On yesterday week a disturbance was caused in the Spruce Street Church, by the interference of some young men with the baptism of a young female named Alice Weldon who had left the Catholic Church. When the ceremony of baptism was about being performed, the brothers of the girl interfered and a serious difficulty was the result. Miss Weldon lives at service with the family of Mr. Webb. Mr. Webb's family are members of the Spruce Street Baptist Church. Yesterday afternoon a niece of Miss Weldon's called at the house of Mr. Webb, and asked the new convert to Protestantism to take a walk. Miss Weldon consented, and when she had reached the corner of Second and Washington streets, she was seized by her three brothers, who were assisted by three other men, who attempted to force her away. Miss Weldon resisted—an excitement followed, and an extensive crowd was soon gathered. Lieut. Gilbert came upon the ground and arrested the party engaged in the abduction.

They afterwards had a hearing before Alderman Carter, who held them to bail to keep the peace and be of good behavior. Miss Weldon is sixteen years of age; the brothers, who do not seem to consider her competent to judge for herself in matters of religion, appear to have left her to take care of herself so far as earning her own living was concerned.

DIED.
In this city, on Saturday, 18th, ROBERT HARTLEY, Works, in the fourth year of his age.

AN AMBITIOUS RAT.—The Prince of Wales (Ind.) Courier tells the following rat story:

Not long since an ambitious rat ascended to the roof of a large barn belonging to Mr. Wilkinson, near Cynthiana, in Posey county, and not being satisfied with the barn, concluded to ascend the lightning rod. The project was no sooner conceived than put into execution. He ascended the rod some six feet above the roof, reached the prongs of the rod, got fast, and was never able to extricate himself. Here he was found dead, a victim to his own ambition.

NEW YORK, April 22.

The steamer Glasgow, from Glasgow, has arrived, bringing Liverpool dates to the evening of the 8th instant, a few hours later than previous advices.

Liverpool, April 8th.—Cotton steady; estimated sales of the day of sailing 6000 bales, of which 1000 were to speculators.

General Thayer, of Omaha city, has raised a party of volunteers to protect the settlers.

HOW IS IT
EVERYBODY wants once of TROXEL'S beautiful AMBROTYPE. Some months ago the different humbug names gotten up by artists to deceive the public attracted considerable attention, but now they have ascertained how easily it is to be humbugged, even by a name, as all other pictures made on glass in Louisville except at Troxel's gallery are not hermetically sealed, not so beautiful, and liable to fade.
Citizens and strangers are particularly invited to call before going elsewhere.
Instructions given in the art for $20.
Also, rights for sale to operate in Kentucky.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Thursday, April 23d.
The prisoner's bench was full to overflowing this morning with a sad and wretched array of victims of drunkenness. Most of them were suffering with incipient mania potu.

The following were committed to the Workhouse for two months each, the Judge considering that the only probable or possible method of relieving them from the thralldom of intemperance: J. W. Johnston, an old bar keeper; John Kelly, John Williams, and John O'Bryan, who were left by a steamboat; Peter Thayer, John McBride, Sarah McBride, and John Darrington.

Sam Carroll, for eighteen years a citizen, was drunk and abusive yesterday at Nuremberg's, on Main below Sixth street. He honestly confessed his crime and was admitted to bail in $100 for two months.

Martin Horan was up on a peace warrant for assaulting Peter Riley. The evidence was directly contradictory, and if any of it was true the reverse would convict a semi-respectable man of perjury. Warrant dismissed.

Charles Richardson, a railroad man, boarding at the Louisville Hotel, became hard up for his board bill and drew a draft for the amount ($22 80) on J. F. Gamble, superintendent on the Nashville road. The draft has thirty days to run, and he hoped by that time to make arrangements for its payment. Waiving an examination, Richardson was committed in default of $500 bail.

DISASTERS BY THE STORM—TEN FLATBOATS SUNK—HEAVY LOSS.—The officers of the steamer Northerner, from Memphis, make the following report: "Met hay boat sunk at James Bayou—total loss; nine flatboats sunk loaded with hay, corn, flour, whisky, bacon, and coal. No lives were lost. In many places the banks were considerably washed from the waves. Five of the boats sunk belonged to Mr. Cox, of Aurora, Ind."

LATEST FROM ST. LOUIS.—We have St. Louis papers of yesterday, the mail having been brought through in fourteen hours under the care of Mr. Thos. Challenor, per Ohio and Mississippi Railroad. We are especially obliged to Mr. C. for his kind attention.

We are also indebted to Mr. R. F. Harrison, one of the popular managers of Owen's Hotel, for late papers from St. Louis.

By Adams & Co.'s Express we received at noon St. Louis papers of last evening, and an Evansville paper of yesterday.

We understand that the farmers of Indiana for several miles back of Jeffersonville have been almost totally deprived of feed for their stock by the extraordinary cold weather. In consequence of this condition of affairs Messrs. Smith & Smyser, at the New Lovell Mill, have been overrun with orders for ship-stuff, bran, shorts, &c. They have been entirely unable to supply the demand upon them.

A BUSY CORONER.—During the past twenty-four hours, Dr. A. H. Bryan, our efficient Coroner, has been called to hold inquests over three dead bodies. One of them was burned to death by fire, and the other two died from the effects of drinking liquid fire. We thank the Coroner for his report of the jury proceedings in each case.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.—This morning, Alice, an interesting young daughter of J. H. Bates, residing on the corner of Floyd and Market streets, died from the effects of severe burns. Her clothes had taken fire about five hours previous, and she expired in great pain. The deceased was three years and eleven months old. Dr. Bryan, the coroner, held an inquest.

DIED FROM HARD DRINKING.—An Irish laboring man, named Owen Gallagher, died yesterday at the corner of Fourth and Green streets, from congestion of the brain—produced by drinking an excessive amount of bad liquor.

KILLED BY FALLING DOWN STAIRS.—Last night Antoine Meyer, aged fifty-five years, fell down a steep pair of stairs in a house on Marshall street, between Jackson and Hancock. He died almost instantly from concussion of the brain.

A dispatch from New York to Messrs. White & Young states that the Warren County (Penn.) Bank is discredited.

THE NATIONAL HOTEL.—The reopening of this establishment was inaugurated to-day by a sumptuous lunch. Messrs. Erwin and Etley, who have leased a portion of the hotel, intend to fit it up in first-rate style, and will soon be prepared for the entertainment of guests. They will have thirty lodging rooms comfortably and elegantly furnished, and all their arrangements will be in the style of a first-class hotel. They are experienced and popular caterers, and under their judicious management the National will doubtless become popular.

THE AMERICAN CARD WRITER.—There were several typographical errors in our notice yesterday of the cards written by Mr. Vesceius, at the Louisville Hotel. It is Mr. W. Irving Vesceius who has achieved an unrivalled reputation as the American card-writer.

BY TELEGRAPH.
Reported for the Evening Bulletin.

CHICAGO, April 23.
The runners have returned from the pursuit of the Indians. They confirm the rumored massacre in blue earth county. Forty settlers were murdered at Big Bend and several women were taken prisoners. Great alarm was everywhere felt.
All the Indians beyond the Minnesota river were assuming a hostile attitude.
Rumors were rife of an alliance between the Sioux and Chippewas.

New York, April 23.
It is reported that the frigate Nicaragua has been ordered to make her trial trip as far as Norfolk in order to test her machinery before proceeding to sea.

WASHINGTON, April 23.
The Department of the Interior this morning completed the organization of the wagon road corps, viz: For Fort Ridgely and South Pass section—F. H. Nobles, of Minnesota, superintendent; Philo P. Hubble, of Minnesota, disbursing agent; Sam'l A. Medary, of Ohio, engineer. For Fort Kearney, South Pass, and Honey Lake—Eastern division, M. S. Abell, of Maryland, superintendent; J. S. Abell, of Massachusetts, engineer; and for the western division, John Kirk, of California, superintendent; Frank Denver, of California, disbursing agent; Bland Bishop, of California, engineer. For El Paso and Fort Yuma section—James B. Leech, of Texas, superintendent; Gabriel Jordan, of Alabama, disbursing agent; N. H. Hullen, engineer. McGraw, Nobles, and Leech leave Washington to-day. Kirk is en route for California. Operations are to be commenced with the least practicable delay.
The War Department has not yet completed its organization for the road assigned it.

BALTIMORE, April 23.
Flour, wheat, and corn unchanged. Sales of whisky at 27¢.

CINCINNATI, April 23, M.
Flour active and higher; sales of 2,200 bbls at $5 50/55 for ordinary to choice superfine; the demand chiefly speculative. Whisky hardly so firm; sales 800 bbls at 123¢/25, chiefly at the latter rate. There is nothing new in provisions.

New York, April 23, M.
Flour buoyant—sales of 11,000 bbls at $5 25/35 for Ohio—an advance of 1c, $5 50/55 for Southern—an advance of 15c. Wheat firm—sales of 5,000 bush at $1 65 for St. Louis white—an advance of 5c. Corn is buoyant—sales of 20,000 bush; white advanced 1c. Mess pork advanced 1c, with sales at $23 50. Beef buoyant. Lard advanced 1c, with sales at 13 1/2¢/14¢.
Stocks are dull and lower—Illinois Central 13 1/2¢, bonds 90 1/2¢, Michigan Southern 14, New York Central 86 1/2¢, Erie 44 1/2¢, Reading 11 1/2¢, Michigan Central 14 1/2¢, Cleveland and Toledo 64, Cleveland and Pittsburgh 40 1/2¢, Milwaukee and Mississippi 71 1/2¢, Virginia 91 1/2¢, Sterling exchange firm.

The Northerner.—This elegant packet has arrived; she was crowded with passengers, who speak in the highest terms of both the boat and her officers. We are indebted to her gentlemanly clerks, Archer and Millikin, for late papers and an interesting memorandum.

The Northerner is commanded by Capt. James T. Smith who has become very popular in the trade. Passengers will find the very best accommodations and fare on her, and reach Memphis in less than 60 hours from the time of her departure. She will leave to-morrow evening.

Fire at Vicksburg.—Burton's wharf-boat at Vicksburg, was destroyed by fire on Friday last. The loss is not great, as the books and papers were saved and the boat was an old one. A new and fine wharf-boat has just been finished at Paducah, which was designed to replace the one destroyed.

We find the following in the New Orleans Picayune, of the 15th inst.:

Accident to the P. F. Kimball.—We have intelligence of an accident to the P. F. Kimball, Capt. Kountz, when on her way from Shreveport to this city, with between 800 to 900 bales of cotton on board. It appears that her beam broke when she was about sixty miles below Shreveport, and her larboard water-wheel was lost overboard. She is trying to work down to the city on one wheel.

The following items we copy from our St. Louis exchanges of Wednesday:

Steamer Minnehaha left Omaha and Bluff City, Saturday 18th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M. River fell 7 feet at Omaha. Friday, thermometer 5 degrees below zero same night. Gen. Thayer, staff, and a Paymaster, in the shape of a 6-pounder, &c., came down with us from Omaha. The Paymaster having driven in settlers on Salt Creek. Several Indians killed and 13 taken prisoners. One white man killed and one badly wounded. Big Platt brim full of newly made running ice.

Freights are unusually low to New Orleans, and the consequence is that several good boats have laid up, including the Hiawatha and St. Nicholas. We trust that better prices will be offered immediately.

The whilom New Orleans and Vicksburg packet Southern Belle arrived here yesterday, with a light cargo. We know positively that she has just been sold, but have no particulars. It was rumored in New Orleans that she was coming here to be torn up, and her machinery would be placed in a new boat. She is not only a very fast boat, but in too good order, we think, to be torn up.

THE THEATRE.—The farewell benefit of Miss Agnes Robertson takes place to-morrow night. As the applications already made for seats will more than fill the dress circle, the manager has arranged to reserve for ladies and their attendants the front half of the parquette, under the control of separate ushers. We congratulate Miss Robertson most heartily on her success in Louisville, and upon her popularity carried to enthusiasm amongst our best and most appreciative citizens. We give her, from our heart, a parting cheer. May good fortune guide, as our best wishes follow, her footsteps. This engagement of Mr. Bourcicault and Miss Agnes Robertson is a signal theatrical triumph. It has been very successful, and has given unusual gratification to the patrons of the theatre.

ALL FOR ONE DOLLAR—Great Inducements at 96 Third Street.—Now is the time to get fine gold watches, jewelry, and extra fine books, pocket-knives, cabas, and work-boxes cheap. No small gifts. Every purchaser of one dollar's worth of liniment receives a free gift worth from 50 cents to $100. Everybody is invited to call and examine the gifts, which are new and desirable. No money is risked on chance, as every person is sure to get the worth of their money besides the liniment, which is alone worth the amount paid for it. One hundred thousand bottles have been sold since the first of January, 1857, and has given universal satisfaction in all diseases for which it is recommended. Remember, four bottles of liniment and a handsome gift for $1, at No. 96 Third street, near the post-office.
